WILL FIGHT FOR SHOCKLEY REWARD

Street Car Company for the $1000 Reward Offered.

ERCY L. PROTHERO, by his attorney. Robert B. Porter, instituted proceedings in the District court yesterday against the Utah Light and Railway company to recover the $1000 reward offered by the defendant street car men, Amassa L, Gleason and Thomas B. Brighton. The complaint recites that the plaintiff, relying on the offer made by the defendant, gave the information to the police authorities which led to the arrest of James M. Shockley and chased his conviction of murder in the first degree for the shooting of Gleason on the night of January 6th.

Prothero claims that because of his compliance with all the terms of the offer he is entitled to the treward, but that the detendant, though often requested, has falled to pay the Sign or any part of the money. The allegations are sworn to by the attorney. Prothero having gone to Idaho Felis since his release from the county juil, where he was held as a witness until the trial of the Shockley case.

FUREY AND QUINN LAND IN THE PEN

John Furey and John Quinn, the last two members to be landed behind the penitentiary walls of the gang that stuck 25 the Zang saloon in Ogden last October, were brought to the State prison yesterday by Sherit, Bailey of Weber county. It lacked just one day of being six months from the time the hold-up was committed until the culprits were all disposed of. The two given into the warden's custody yester-day skipped the country immediately after the crime, but were located in California about a month ago and placed under arrest. Furey, who was one of the leaders of the gang, has eight years to serve, while a sentence of five years was imposed on Quinn. Sheriff $1.65 from a drunken man

FAVORS NEW PARTY FOR CORPORATIONS

Percy Prothero Brings Suit Against | Chicago Judge Thinks Time is Ripe for Political Organization With Settled Policy Toward Them.

CHICAGO. April 19.-The supremacy of "some political party with a settled policy regarding the great corporations of the country, is declared by Judge Peter S. Grosscup to be the means of fer information leading to the arrest and conviction of the murderer of the two street car men. Amassa L. Gleason and Thomas B. Brighton. The available to ment.

Speaking before the Chicago Congregational club at its monthly dinner at the Auditorium on "The Church, the State, and the Individual," the jurist declared himself a friend of the "honestly managed corporation," while deploring that "the individualism of thirty years ago has been lost in vast mergers of capital."

The platform of his proposed new political party was outlined by the speaker as follows: Recognition of the fact that the cor-poration is "here to stay" and cannot be driven out by a "mad-dog" policy. "A demand that the capitalization of a corporation shall represent its as-Insistence that the great seal of a State shall not be employed to sanction the existence of institutions "born ankrupt. Restrictions on the organization of corporations, "of Elffel tower construc-tion," offering "ground floor privileges" to a few stockholders.

The subjection of all corporations to dovernment supervision.
"The dishonest corporation as an institution of this country will never be broken up until some such policy has been adopted by a courageous, high-minded political party, and no such party will even take it up until it is assured of favorable public sentiment," said Judge Grosscup.

CRAWLED INTO CAVE, KILLED A BIG BEAR

After Bagging Bruin He Nosed About and Found Rich Ledge of Gold.

HELENA, Mont., April 19 .- J. H. Dingley of Coeur d'Alene arrived in Missoula with $7000 in gold, which he deposited in a local bank. Last year Dingley says he and a companion were hunting in Shoshone county, Ida., when his dog started a bear, which ran into a cave. Dingley crawled into the hole and killed the bear.

An inspection of the cave revealed that it was over the mouth of an old mine shaft, and in the shaft was the skeleton of a man, who had evidently been killed by a falling rock. Dingley and his partner relocated the mine, and last week sold it to R. H. Kingsberry of Spokane for $14,000. Dingley received as his share half of the sum.
